Life Insurance Needs Analysis

How much life insurance do you and your family need?

Do you have enough?

Life insurance can help provide funds to meet your family's immediate and ongoing needs in the event of either spouse's premature death.

Use the following information and worksheet to help determine how much life insurance you and your spouse need to protect your family's standard of living.

We suggest doing a separate calculation for each person.

A. Immediate Cash Needs	(Estimate expenses that will have to be	e paid within a relatively short time after death.

Social Security Survivor Benefits

This table 1 shows the approximate monthly benefits payable to your family if you have had a typical earnings history.

Approximate Monthly Benefits for Survivors

Use these descriptions for the numbers in the first column at right.

(1) Spouse Survivor Benefit

The benefit for your widow(er) at full retirement age (FRA). The FRA for surviving spouse benefits is 65 for persons born in 1938 but gradually rises to 67 for persons born in 1962 and later.

(2) Early Spouse Survivor Benefit

If your surviving widow(er) begins taking benefits early, at age 60.

(3) Child or Spouse Survivor Benefit

The benefit for a child under age 18 (up to 19 if in high school); also a widow(er) under age 61 with eligible child who is under age 16 or disabled before age 22.

(4) Family's maximum benefit

The sum of all widow(er) and children's benefits cannot exceed this amount.

NOTE: While the earliest age for retirement is 62, a widow(er) without eligible children can receive survivor benefits as early as age 60. If there are eligible children, the widow(er) parent can receive benefits at any age.
